The world's most exhilarating and interactive LGBT+ Leadership Contest goes to Toronto!

On June 22nd, the 4th edition of RAHM | The Global LGBT+ Leadership Contest gathers 100 pre-selected LGBT+ leaders and jury members at RBC in Toronto. Through group work and discussions, participants will expand their professional network, share expertise and develop their leadership skills. Albeit a contest, it strives for the exchange of experiences, inspiration, support and lasting connections.

The RAHM Jury consists of top executives including CEOs, founders and renowned diversity role models, such as Lawrence Spicer, Helen Kennedy, Kim Messer or Suresh Raj. The jury members act as supporters to the contestants: they are involved in group discussions and provide participants with individual feedback.

The side events around the contest offer multiple occasions for networking with other LGBT+ professionals. Following the contest, participants march together with RBC in the Toronto Pride Parade.

RAHM Contest 2019 also takes place in Dublin on June 28th (hosted by Goolge) and Berlin on July 26th (hosted by the Commerzbank).
